

Mr. Antoine Deswaziere is a mission officer for industrial transition at the Industry Department of ADEME. After obtaining an engineering degree from ENSMAC in Bordeaux in 2017, he defended a thesis in the field of water photoelectrolysis at Sorbonne University in 2020. Recently, he co-published the Sectoral Transition Plan for the ammonia industry in France.