

Mr. Atsushi MOTEGI, Chief Officer, Green Innovation Fund Projects Coordination Office, NEDO

Mr. Atsushi Motegi is a chief officer of Green Innovation Fund Projects Coordination Office at New Energy and Industrial Technology Development Organization (NEDO). Mr. Motegi is in charge of institutional design related to the Green Innovation Fund Projects. He is also supporting the promotion of the project by conducting research on the latest trends in each of the 20 themes currently being addressed in the project, including the Iron and Steelmaking sector, and by conducting surveys on the latest trends in each technology area.

Year	Work Experience and Academic Background
March 2017	Graduated from the Graduate School of Agricultural and Life Sciences, The University of Tokyo
April 2017	Worked in Robot and Artificial Intelligence Technology Department, NEDO
March 2020	Appointed as Project Manager and engaged in planning and formulating new projects related to industrial robots
April 2021 ~	Worked in Green Innovation Fund Projects Coordination Office, NEDO as Chief Officer